VOCATIONAL & HIGHER EDUCATION NEWS

Interested in health, IT and business? You may enjoy a career in health information management. According to La Trobe University, "there is a national workforce shortage in this industry, which means graduates are in high demand. Salaries range from $50 000 - $180 000 at senior level". The course at La Trobe University is called the Bachelor of Health Sciences (Medical Classification)/ Bachelor of Health Information Management. Find out more at this link- <http://bit.ly/1Uvhddl>

Why the Bachelor of Arts is a great choice for students: If you love humanities but aren't sure what you would like to specifically study, the Bachelor of Arts is a fantastic undergraduate degree. The following videos have been developed by three universities to showcase their Bachelor of Arts programs

- ⇒ Australia National University, <http://bit.ly/1UNrrWC>
- ⇒ Monash University, <http://bit.ly/1trFwDE>
- ⇒ University of Melbourne, <http://bit.ly/1XRHDNM>

Mathematics bridging programs: If you aren't currently studying Mathematical Methods and require this subject for entry into a course at The University of Melbourne or Swinburne University, the following are bridging programs you can apply to undertake during Year 12 or during a gap year:

- ⇒ University of Melbourne: You can complete the online Probability and Calculus subject offered through the University, <http://bit.ly/1WLIIdNe>
- ⇒ Swinburne University: There are two separate streams in the MathsLink program – one for students who require Further Mathematics and one for students who require Mathematical Methods, <http://bit.ly/1MOnAHA>

Have you considered pursuing vocational education after school? Research shows that 4/5 parents would prefer their child to go to university after school over vocational education and that many young people and parents don't understand the benefits of vocational education and training (e.g., TAFE, apprenticeships, traineeships). New research suggests that:

- 9 out of the 10 top occupations predicted to have the most jobs growth are in vocational training areas.
- The median full-time income for a vocational education graduate is $56,000 vs $54,000 for someone with a bachelor degree.
- Nearly 8 in 10 vocational education graduates have a job soon after training, vs about 7 in 10 university graduates; and
- More than 9 in 10 trade apprentices have jobs after finishing training.
